

A group G is fully residually Γ if any finite subset of G is mapped injectively to Γ by some homomorphism. We will discuss an invariant of fully residually Γ groups that measures the necessary complexity of such homomorphisms for Γ a fixed hyperbolic group.