

Title: Impartial Achievement Games on Convex Geometries

Speaker: Nandor Sieben

Affiliation: NAU

Abstract: We study a game where two players take turns selecting points of a convex geometry until the convex closure of the jointly selected points contains all the points of a given winning set. The winner of the game is the last player able to move.