In the spirit of SGAI, there is a generalization of Toen's work on homotopy types to the fundamental infinity-groupoid of a Segal topos which I will present. One finds that local systems on such a groupoid are equivalent to the topos one started from. This provides among other things a self-contained description of natural phenomena.